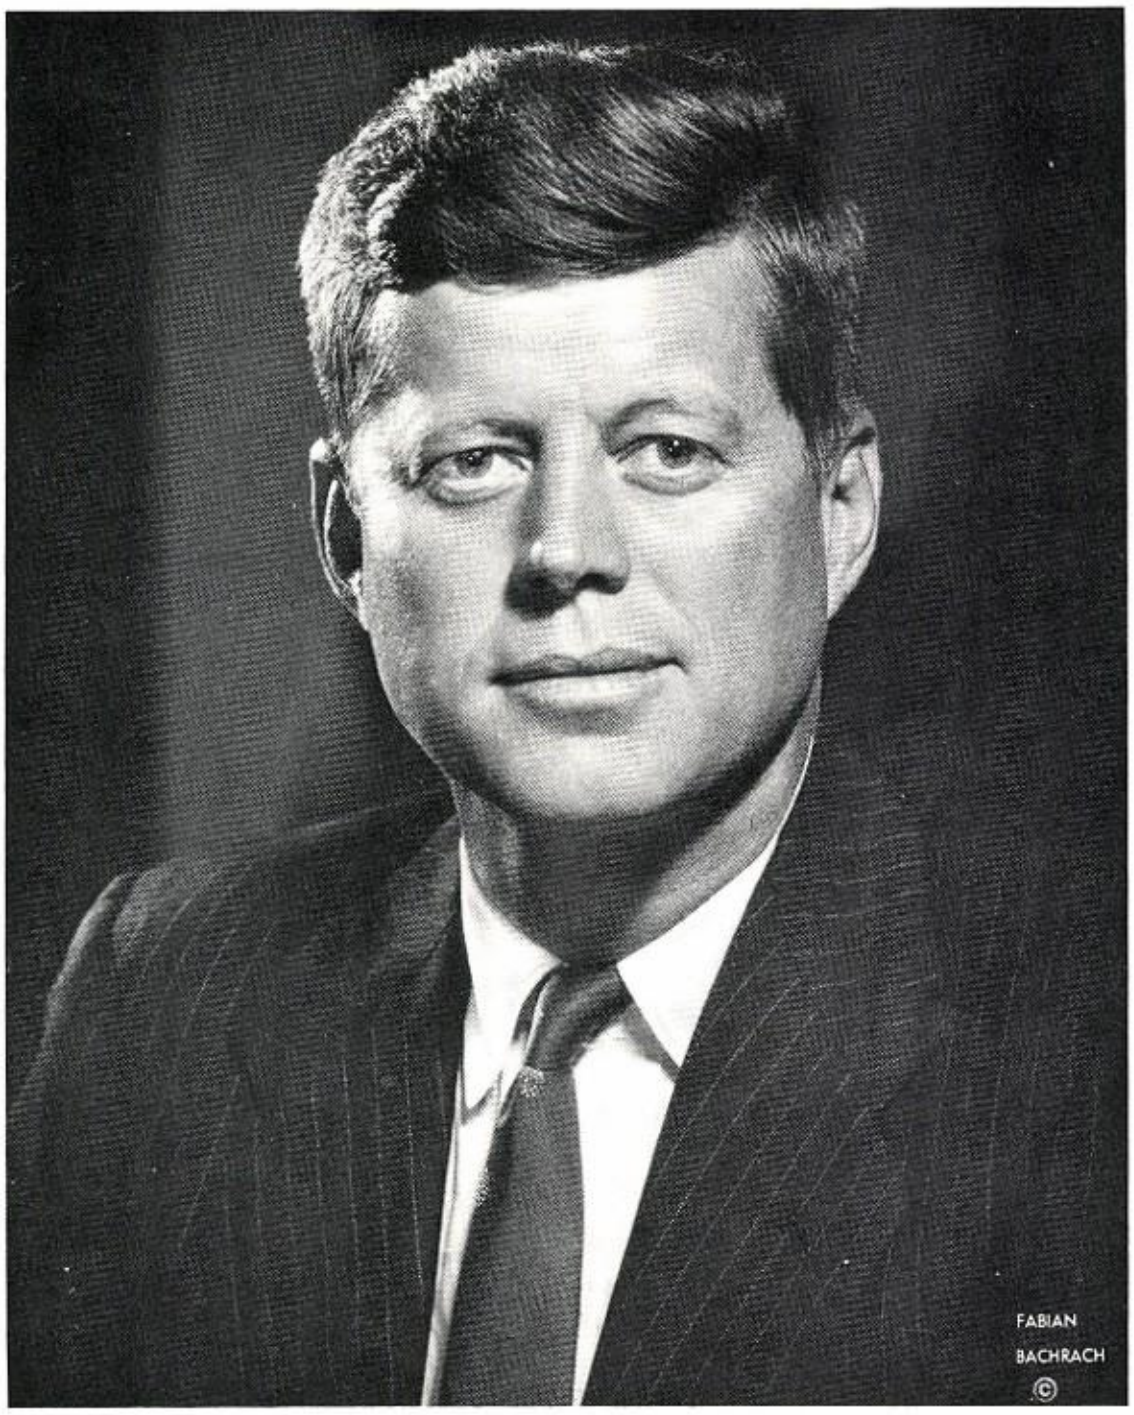
Dedication



It is with deep respect and reverence that the Annual Staff dedicates the 1963-64 "ROCKET" to the late President John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

We Americans were appalled on that bleak November 22nd to realize how much we had taken for granted the Chief Executive and his position; and yet, in sudden retrospect, how vitally we felt ourselves represented by the image of our President.

We have come through tragedy to a new realization of what the "big man in the White House" can mean to the world and to us.

The 1964 ROCKET projects you into

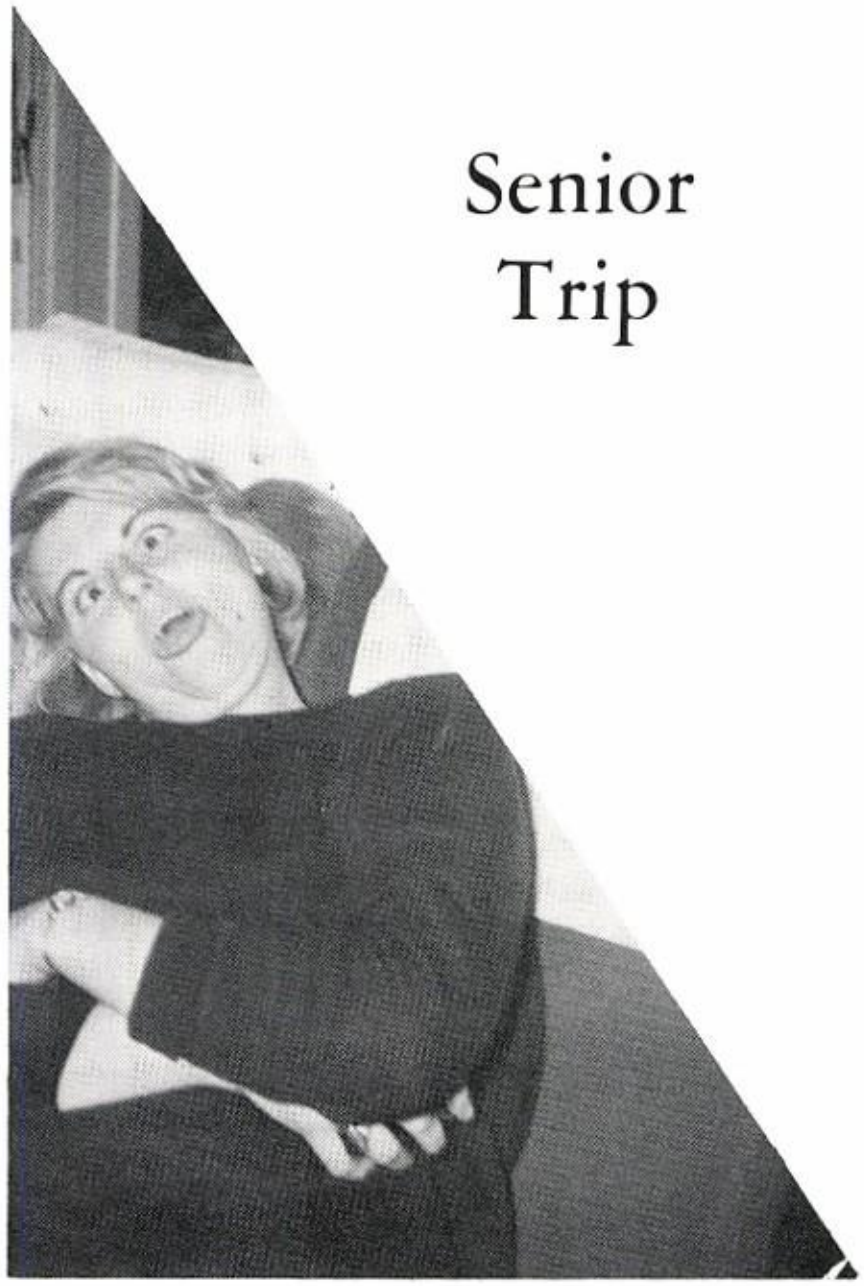
Senior Trip

They didn't go to sleep till it was daylight.

They didn't even wake up when the picture was taken but neither did the others.



The Senior Trip must have been too much for poor Vicki.

It wasn't really cold waiting for the bus. It's just that Phyllis is about to sneeze.

The Seniors sometimes wonder if Mr. Prather really enjoyed himself or if he were just putting on a front.
